Collection of sensitive information

Where you apply for certain life risk products (such as life insurance, income protection insurance, trauma insurance, total and permanent disability insurance) it will be necessary for LDM Private Wealth to collect sensitive information about your health. This information will only be collected when you give consent by completing the product's application form. The information will be sourced by the Life Insurance company from the you, your medical professional and by other medical professionals where medical tests may have been performed.

Due to confidentiality, it is sometimes the case whereby LDM Private Wealth may not be made fully aware of your medical circumstances provided to the Life Insurance Company.

Unless required by law, we will only collect sensitive information with your consent.

If you fail to provide us with the required information, or if you provide us with incomplete, or inaccurate information we may not be able to provide you with the services you are seeking within the time periods contemplated.

If you elect not to provide us with the personal information you may be exposed to higher risks in respect of the recommendations made to you and this may affect the adequacy or appropriateness of advice given to you. Alternatively, we may elect to terminate our relationship with you if we believe we are unable to provide you with adequate service.

Personal information acquired by us in the course of providing our services may be provided to our Licensee (CWG), external service providers, product and platform providers, auditors, taxation and legal advisers and information technology consultants. Otherwise your personal information will not be disclosed unless:

- Australian law requires us to; or
- you authorise us to disclose it to a 3rd Party on your behalf, e.g. your tax adviser.

If you think any of the details that we hold are incorrect or out of date, please contact us to correct this. You can always access the personal information held about you by contacting us.
